

Obituary

James Wruth

James Wruth entered into rest suddenly but peacefully at Lochlin on Thursday January 31, 1974.

James Wruth was born July 2, 1889 in Snowdon Township and is the last of the family of the late Deforest and Emily (Moore) Wruth.

He was the beloved husband of the late Margaret Dugan (Oct 7, 1967) and the dear father of Murray, Ruby (Mrs. Mervin Gilbert) both of Lochlin and Gladys of Lindsay. Predeceased by son Evdan (Dec. 29, 1967) and daughter Irene (March 29, 1916).

Also surviving are nine grandchildren Dwain, Arlene and Jim Wruth, Bryce - Rhonda (Mrs. Mervin Rivers) Bradley and Daryl Gilbert. Kirk and Aubrey Harrison and three great grandchildren - Wayne, Pamela and Michelle Rivers and predeceased by grandson Brynell Gilbert (Sept. 1 1966).

Mr. Wruth spent his entire life in Snowdon Township, farming in North Snowdon for a number of years and since 1967 has resided with his son Murray.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Don Nicholson from the Welch Funeral Home on Saturday Feb. 2 at 1:30 P.M.

The many floral tributes and memorial donations showed the respect that was held by friends and neighbours for Mr. Wruth.

Pallbearers were Bob Hughes, Floyd Miller Mike Newell, Ron Little, Carl Dugan and Cyril Gill.

Temporary entombment took place at Ingoldsby cemetary Vault for Spring burial at Gelert Cemetery.

No one heard the footsteps
The Angels drawing near,
Who took from earth to heaven

The one we loved so dear.
He has not really left us
Nor has he travelled far.
Just entered God's beautiful garden
And left the gates ajar.
