MARGARET C. WRUTH

Margaret Christina Wruth entered into rest at Minden Hospital on Saturday evening, October 7, 1967.

Aunt Maggie as she was affectionately known to many friends, was born on October 20, 1892, the eldest daughter of the late James and Eliza Dugan.

Mrs. Wruth was raised and educated at North Snowdon, and on June 21, 1911 she was united in marriage to her life companion, James Wruth, and they settled on the farm next to her parents where they have resided ever since, other than last winter which they spent with their son Murray.

She was a kind friend to all in the time of trouble or need, and the high esteem she held was shown by the many and beautiful floral tributes.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves her family, Evlan of Minden, Murray and Ruby (Mrs. Mervin Gilbert) of Lochlin, and Gladys (Mrs. Keith Henderson) of Lindsay; grandchildren Bryce, Rhonda, Bradley and Daryl Gilbert, Kirk and Aubrey Harrison, and Dwain, Arlene and Jim Wruth, and great grandson Waine.

She was predeceased by a daughter, Irene, and grandson, Brynell Gilbert.

Mrs. Wruth was the dear sister of Mrs. Myrtle Roberts, Mrs. Lillie Miller, William and James, and predeceased by Mrs. Ida Lindop and Pearl.

The funeral service was held from the John Welch Funeral Home with Rev. Ronald McCaw conducting the service.

Pallbearers were nephews of the deceased, Carl and Ross Dugan, Floyd and Ray Miller, Bob Hughes and Mike Newell.

Interment was made in Gelert Cemetery.

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days,

Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
